Guzheng-Chinese Zither

Group/Private Classes

Learn to play the ancient instrument - Guzheng. Dating back to the Qin Dynasty Warring States period, this beautiful 21-stringed Zither is a Chinese musical treasure.

About the teacher

Ping Jiang (pictured) holds a Bachelor of Music education from Conservatorium of Music of Huaibei Normal University and completed her Master of Guzheng Performance Studies at the Conservatorium of Music of Anhui Normal University. Ping’s accomplishments to date include:

• Silver at The Seventh Session of the National Art World Festival in 2005
• Silver at The Chang Ming Cup Guzheng competition in 2004
• Three of her students won gold at the national “China Red Composition” music competition in 2010

Course details

When:  Group class 1pm-2pm  Oct 9– Dec 11.
       Private class, choose your time:  Wednesday 10am-5pm

Where:  Confucius Institute, 172 Bouverie St, Carlton

Cost:  $390 for 10-hours group class;
$640 for 10-hours private tuition

Enquiry:  Email Lianying at lyhao@unimelb.edu.au or 9035 8204