

THE UNIVERSITY OF
MELBOURNE

Confucius Institute at the University of Melbourne

2023 Year of the Rabbit Cultural Workshops

兔年大吉 | 农历新年文化活动

for Schools & Communities

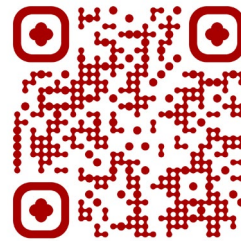

The Confucius Institute at the University of Melbourne proudly launches its annual Chinese New Year cultural workshop series to schools and local communities! The Lunar New Year in 2023 falls on 22 January. The workshops are specifically designed to celebrate the start of the Year of the Rabbit and give the participants a taste of Chinese culture and traditions.

- Program Venue: Excursions / Incursions
- Program Duration: 4 hours (4 cultural workshops)
- Cost: The cost depends on the group size. Please contact us for more information.
- Enrolment and Contact: For group registrations only. There has often been a high demand of these workshops during this period. To secure your program, please make a booking at your earliest convenience.
- Program Description: Ms Luna Tai at luna.tai@unimelb.edu.au or call 03 9035 8203.

Cultural workshops are delivered in a package of four traditional activities. You may choose from the list to make your own unique cultural experience.

- ✓ Activity 1 Dragon & Lion dance experience
- ✓ Activity 2 & 3 Traditional handcrafting (choose 2 from the following)
 - A. Chinese knot-making
 - B. Lantern-making
 - C. Paper-folding
 - D. Spring couplets
 - E. Paper-cutting
 - F. 3D paper-folding

Scan to express your interest

- ✓ Activity 4 Cultural experience (choose 1 from the following)
 - A. Shadow-puppet showing
 - B. Dumpling-making
 - C. Traditional costume fitting

