

Chinese Immersion Program 沉浸式汉语体验营

The Confucius Institute at the University of Melbourne has developed the Chinese language & cultural program, which uniquely simulates a study tour in China, tailored for language students who cannot travel internationally due to the epidemic. This program give opportunities to the participants to fully immerse themselves in the Chinese language and culture. Participants of all proficiency levels will engage in a ray of thrilling learning activities conducted solely in Mandarin.

-
- Program Venue: University of Melbourne
- Program Date: 30 September, Saturday (the day after the Mid-Autumn Festival)
- Cost: $298 per person (incl. GST). Only 10 places are available and provided on a first-come-first-serve basis. Discount applies to family registration.
- Enrolment and Contact: Contact confucius-institute@unimelb.edu.au

Program Description:

A hub of all things creative, our teaching team offers all participants Chinese through ICT, Chinese through Art and History, Chinese through Film and Songs, and much more. It's the opportunity to improve Chinese language skills while immersing themselves in a 100% Chinese-speaking environment. The program aims at:

- interdisciplinary teaching
- raising self-esteem for all participants
- facilitating high levels of proficiency in Chinese
- promoting bilingualism, biliteracy and multiculturalism
- helping participants achieve grade-level academic performance in Chinese
- leaving participants with more flexibility in thinking, greater sensitivity to language, and a better ear for listening

